THE PLAINSMAN

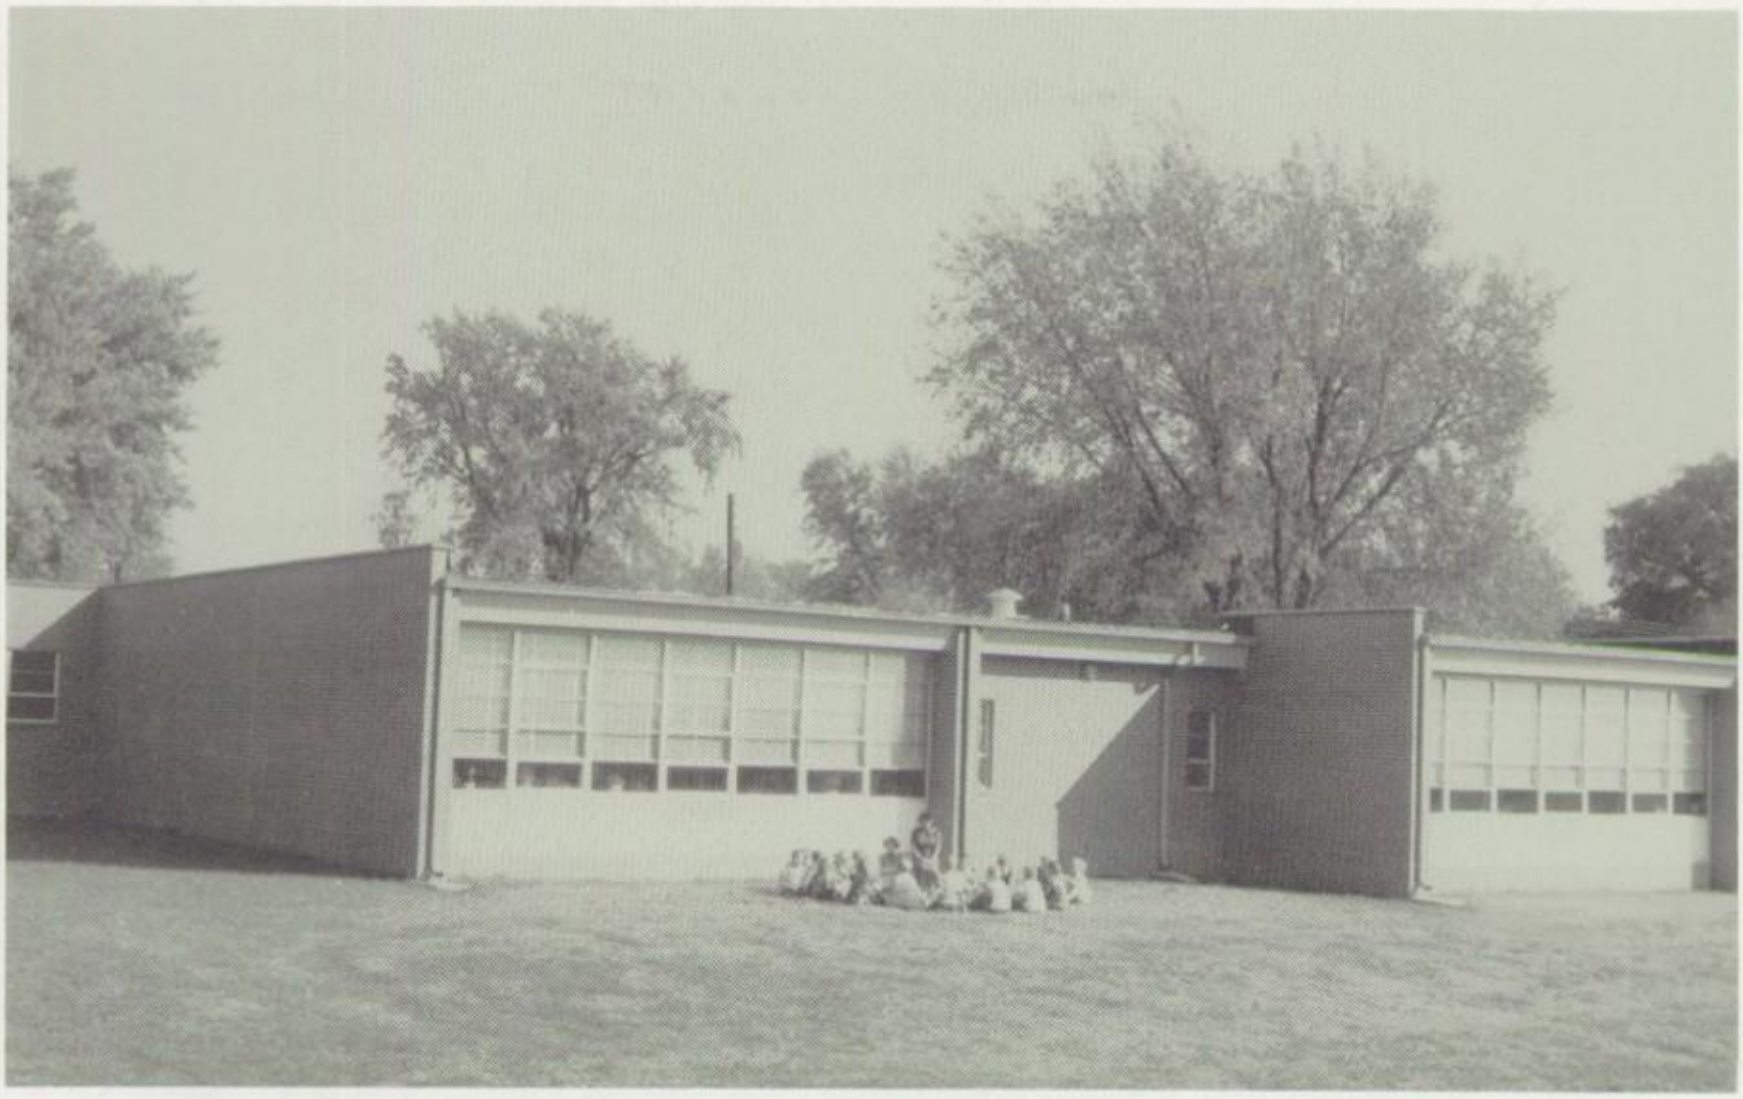
PRESENTED
BY
THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1959

We wish to thank all the advertisers who helped make this annual possible by their generous contributions. Their names appear on the pages for which they paid.

PRAIRIE CITY COMMUNITY SCHOOLS
PRAIRIE CITY, IOWA



To Mr. Olson:

We, the Senior Class of 1959, are proud to dedicate this annual to you, Mr. Olson, for faithfully and unselfishly serving our school during the past two years. We truly appreciate the many times you have "come to our rescue" by willingly offering your assistance and guidance.

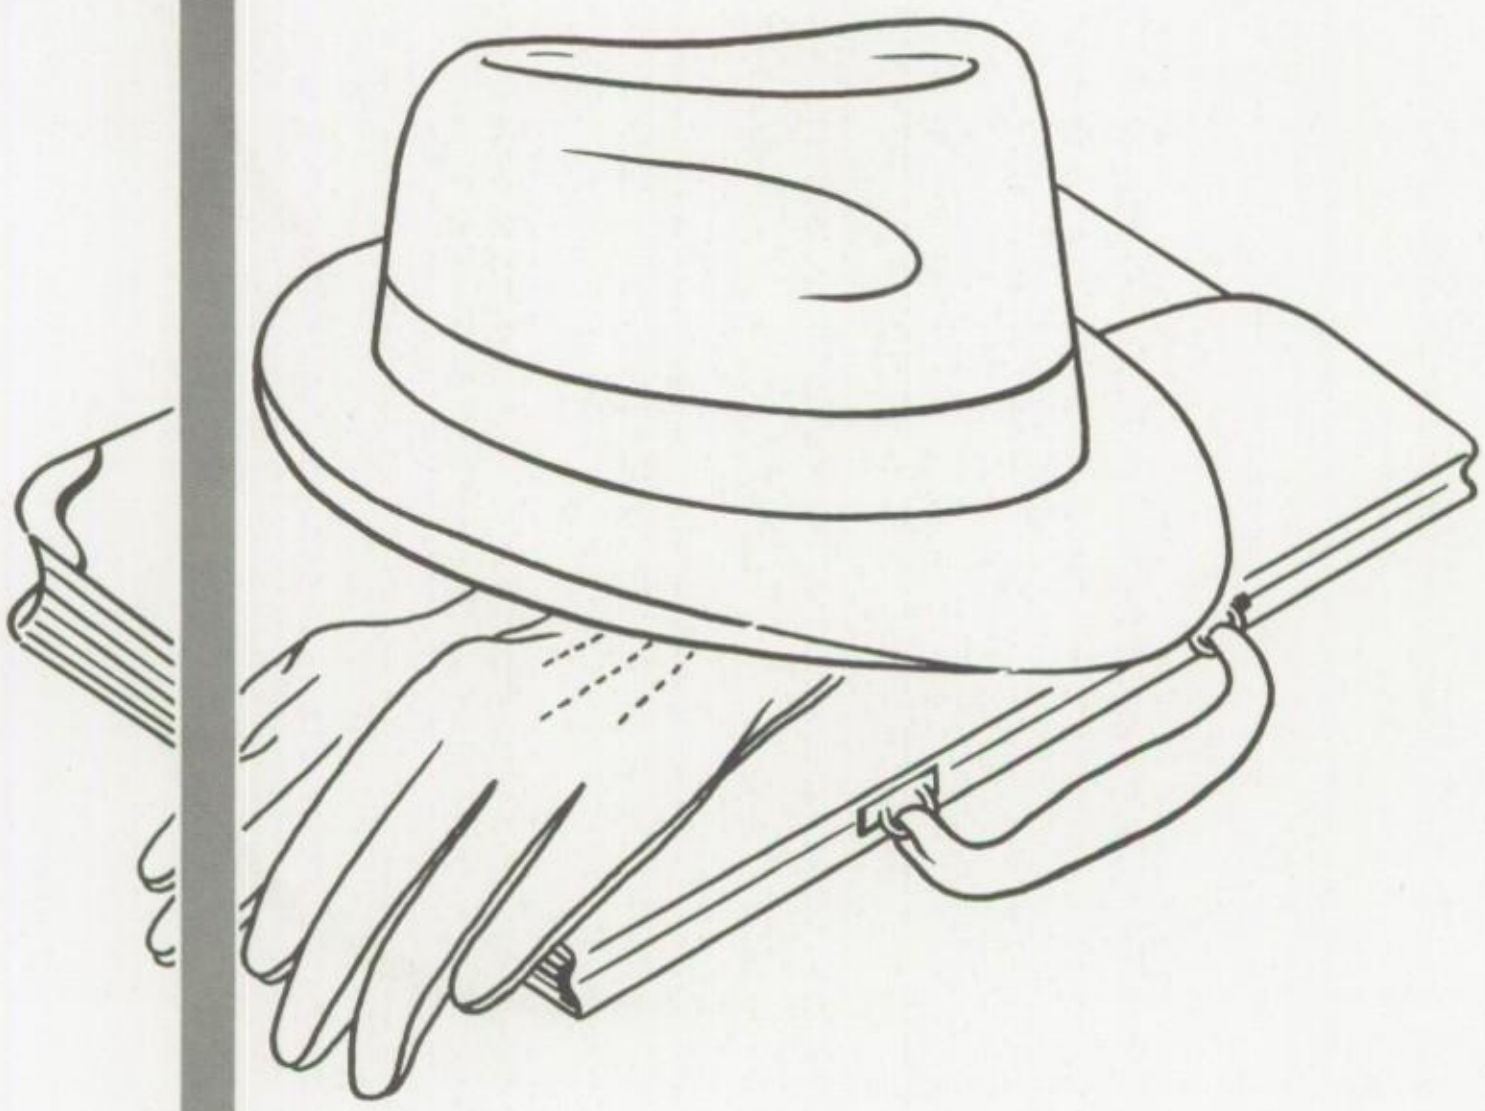
To the Class of '59:

There are times when you can't seem to find the right words to express yourself and with a lump in your throat, it makes it even more difficult. However, to you, The Senior Class of 1959, I want to say, in my humble way, my deepest and sincerest thanks for the honor bestowed upon me.

It has been a pleasure and a privilege to work with you these past two years, and I want to take this opportunity to wish you the best of health, happiness, and success in whatever you undertake to do in life's work.

Russ Olson

Administration



Rather than attempt to pen a few words of wisdom, I am going to list for you some of my favorite quotes.

No man is the whole of himself;
His friends are the rest of him.
- Henry Emerson Fosdick

Every man has a right to his own opinion, but no man has a right to be wrong in his facts.
- Bernard M. Baruch

Your concern should not be whether
God is on your side but whether you are on God's.
- Lawrence D. Bell

I am a great believer in luck
The harder I work the more of it I seem to have.
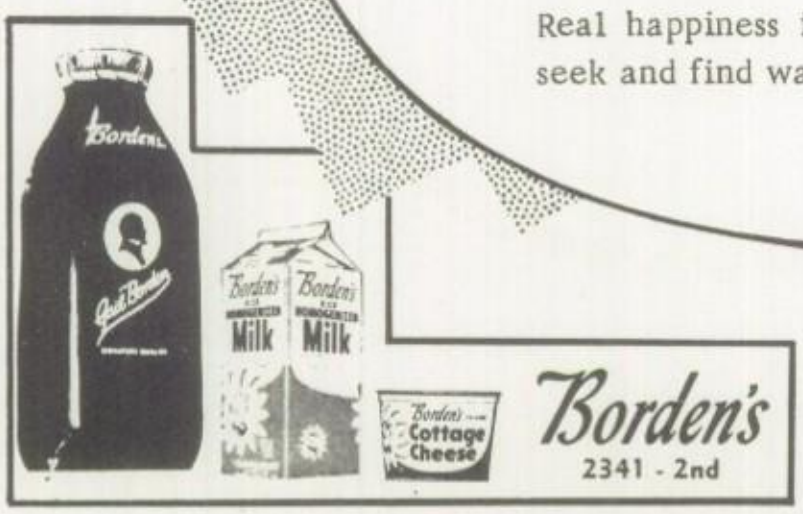
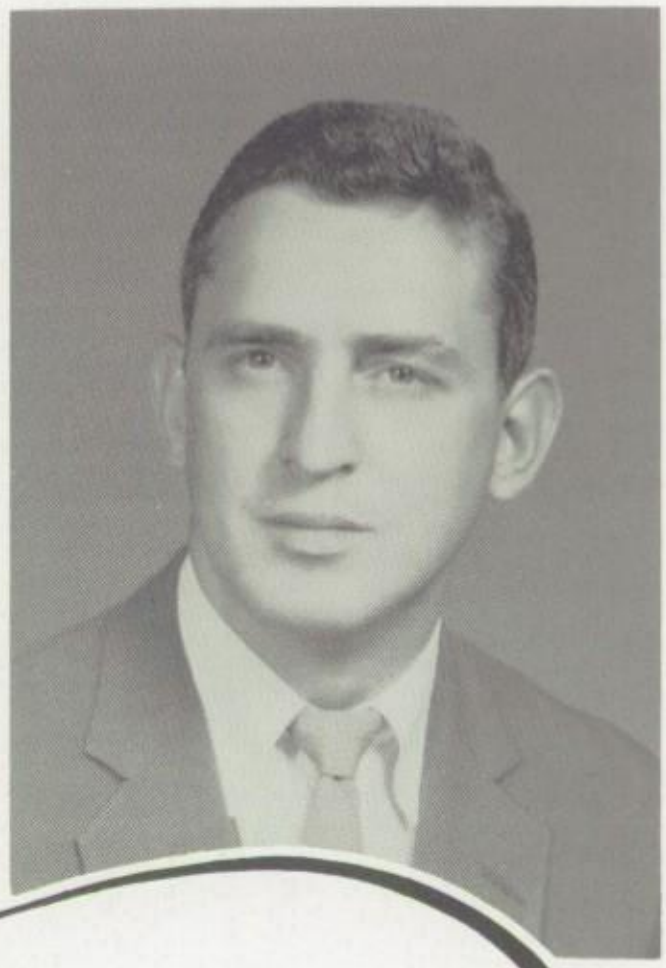
- Coleman Cox

Real happiness is for those among you who seek and find ways to serve your fellow man.

- William Raisch
Superintendent





To the Seniors of 1959:

Three years we have known each other, in which time I am sure we have become quite well acquainted. I know I have learned much through our associations and will have pleasant memories for the future because of these associations.

I sincerely hope that each of you have profited much from your experiences here at Prairie City High. Do your best to use your abilities properly and in a manner which will be worthy for yourself. Then you will reap much joy and happiness in the years to come.

May success and happiness be yours.

Sincerely,

O. J. Dunkin

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It is the year 1979 and the Mardi Gras has just begun. The Senior Class of 1959 are planning to hold their 20th reunion at the Mardi Gras. At the time Jim Cowman and Dean Cabbage, due to circumstances beyond their control, are at a loss for 10 points and are hitch-hiking their way to New Orleans. As luck would have it, Beverly Snetselaar comes cruising by in her Rolls Royce, chauffeured by Ronnie Miller--and picks them up.

A few days before in the Gulf of Mexico, Harold Wilson and Rodney Z. --Lieutenants in the U.S. Coast Guard--searched diligently for Judy Buckingham, a marlin fisherman suspected of smuggling chocolate-covered ants and raspberry wine into the U.S. Upon apprehending her, they threw her in the Tiajuana clink with Margery Thornton--a guest there, for disturbing the peace.

Thousands of people crowd the streets of New Orleans to celebrate the Mardi Gras; Melvin Ingram, Parade Master of Ceremonies, announces the events and floats as they pass. The first attraction is a float entered by the URJA's (Union of Rich Junkmen of America) a union established by Scotty Williams, a rich junkman. Following in quick succession comes an equestrian group led by Judy Schlosser on her old grey mare; as she passes the Governor's stand her trusty steed falters and falls. Virginia Van Voorhis, a well-known veterinarian, leaps out of the crowd, gives the ancient one a shot--he charges off down the street.

Around the corner comes a little Nash Rambler convertible with Maryellen Neideigh and Don Van Zee in the front seat; the crowd cheers the stars of CAT ON A HOT TIN ROOF. Walking behind comes the invalid, Val Olson, in a wheel chair pushed by the strong man Ronnie VandePloeg; both of them have leading roles in SOME LIKE IT HOT.

The Army is represented by a float featuring Judy Waddle in her uniform. After scores of floats and much celebrating, the parade is ended. As the crowds disperse, the Class of 1959 journeys out to Barbara Vanderzyl's Country Club, where Phyllis and Donna are about ready to tee off, caddied by Neola Bos.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On August 29, 1955, thirty wide-eyed, blundering, green Freshmen entered good old PCHS to begin 4 long years that will never be forgotten. The members included: Louis Booher, Neola Bos, Alvie Bowers, Judy Buckingham, Dean Cabbage, Bob Cline, Jim Cowman, Roy Hardenburgh, Richard Henly, Frank Herweh, Claire Hutcheson, Melvin Ingram, Ronnie Miller, Connie Mills, Maryellen Neideigh, Karen Sandy, Russell Schakel, Judy Schlosser, Donald Sille, Beverly Snetselaar, Phyllis VandeLune, Ronnie VanderPloeg, Barbara Vanderzyl, Donna Van Maanen, Virginia VanVoorhis, Donald Van Zee, Judy Waddle, Raymond Williams, Harold Wilson, and Rodney Zook.

Initiation came with all its torture and humble bows we meek Freshmen had to suffer. We made it, though, and went on to have two theater parties the first year.

We began our Sophomore year with only 26...we lost Claire Hutcheson, Richard Henley, Connie Mills and Donald Sille...We became more accustomed to the rapid events of school activities, in which we participated more actively.

We're on the home stretch now as upperclassmen--27 strong. Our year began without Russell Schakel and Frank Herweh--but we gained Margery Thornton, Mary Lou Land, and Val Olson. On January 4 we presented our play "New Fires" under the direction of Mrs. Stoner. We also entertained the Seniors to a banquet at the Airport's CLOUD ROOM with the theme "Around the World in 80 Days." The seriousness of school work became more apparent, and we start making plans for the future.

The time has arrived that we must face the problem of an undecided future. After losing Alvie Bowers, Roy Hardenburgh, and Karen Sandy, we have 21 people left. Our Senior Year was highlighted by the usual initiation of the Freshmen (our chance to get even), our Senior Class Play "Seventeen is Terrific," the banquet at the Savory Hotel May 9, 1959, and the production of our '59 Annual.

The Baccalaureate Service on May 17, and Commencement May 21 marked the end of our long journey through the realm of higher learning. Through the years we have had many wonderful experiences, and now we will go our separate ways--but we will always have those unforgettable memories of days at Prairie City High School.

Deannie, with a thirst for gore
Nailed our Phyllis to the door
Dunkin said, with humor quaint
Now Deannie, Dear, don't spoil the paint.

Little Miller, dresst in sashes
Fell in the fire and was burned to ashes

Silvan found some dynamite
Couldn't understand it quite
Curiosity never pays
It rained Silvan seven days

By and by the room grew chilly
But no one liked to poke up Ronnie

THE SPRING PROM

BOARD OF FACULTY WIVES' TEA

The Editorial Staff of the college library found itself involved in a mysterious affair which was to have national significance. The terrifying events which broke up the meeting were at first accredited to a fraternity initiation, then taking place in the gymnasium. Gradually it became apparent that some force, entirely alien to the school, was menacing the safety of the students. The plot was so logically worked out that the audience delighted in becoming amateur detectives--following each clue to the solving of the mystery.

Chuck earns $5 but loses it! Ginny's stalling Hugo. Desperate, Chuck enters and wins a talent contest $5--wrecks a fender on the car--cost: $4.85. Ginny's ready to nod to Hugo. Gram's been unable to find a jar w/ $5 in it she buried on her farm. Chuck takes Billie's map and digs--comes home in triumph, but Billie claims the find. A cave worth $50,000 is discovered--Mr. Allenby's business is saved, so he supplies the happy ending--Chuck and Ginny go off to the dance.

Scotty floated o'er the falls
Amid his friends most frantic calls
Kutzli cried, "How sad the day
Our children start to drift away"

Little Jimmie, full of glycerine
Dropped poor Glenda in the cistern
Now the pint of brew, I'll tell ya
Has gone to 5 in old Vandalia

Falling from a mountain peak
Meyden had a narrow squeak
An eagle seized him by the locks
So he didn't spoil the rocks.

MYSELF

I want to live with myself and so
I want to be fit for myself to know.
I want to be able as days go by
Always to look myself straight in the eye
I don't want to stand with the setting sun
And hate myself for the things I've done

I don't want to keep on a closet shelf
A lot of secrets about myself
And fool myself as I come and go,
Into thinking that nobody else will know
The kind of man I really am;
I don't want to dress myself up in a sham.

I want to go out with my head erect
I want to deserve all Men's respect
But here in the struggle for fame and pelf
I want to be able to like myself;
I don't want to look at myself and know
That I'm bluster and bluff and empty show.

I never can hide myself from me
I see what others may never see
I know what others may never know
I never can fool myself, and so
Whatever happens, I want to be
Self-respecting and conscience free

GRADUATION

Graduation
Is sighs and laughter
Mingled liberally
With tears,
Lingering memories
Of one's sharing
Life of classmates
Through the years.

Graduation
Is termination
Of one big phase
Of work and fun
A milestone passed,
New things begun.

Graduation
Is excitement,
Speeches, farewells
And applause,
Diplomas
And a mortar board.
The gate to pathways
Unexplored.

Is an end,
But also a beginning...
The start of all the dreams
That every graduate
Is spinning.
